

DISCLOSURE UNDER THE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS ACT

Re: The General Insurance Transaction as detailed in the documents to which this disclosure statement is attached.

The Financial Institutions Act requires that the information contained in this Disclosure Notice be provided to a customer in writing when entering into an insurance transaction.

1. The C.J. Campbell Insurance Broker you dealt with is licensed as a General Insurance Agent by the Insurance Council of British Columbia.
2. The transaction is between you and the General Insurance Company(s) noted on the document.
3. In soliciting the transaction, the Licensee you dealt with represents C.J. Campbell Insurance Brokers, who does business with the Insurer(s) noted.
4. The Insurer(s) in this transaction has/have no financial interest with the licensee you dealt with, nor does the licensee you dealt with have any financial interest in the insurer(s) in this transaction.
5. If the transaction involves any payment of premium by the insured, then the insurer will remunerate C.J. Campbell Insurance Brokers by way of commission or fee.
6. Where business has been referred to C.J. Campbell Insurance Brokers licensees by a Third Party, a referral fee may be paid.
7. The Financial Institutions Act prohibits the Insurer(s) from requiring you to transact additional or other business with the Insurer(s) or any other person or corporation as a condition of this transaction.
